

Introduction to Western Line

Fast Facts

- Modern Period Design Style 1910-Present
- Western Line began in the 1930-40's in response to the Great Depression
- Combination of Oriental (Ikebana) and European (Continental)
 - Ikebana is the art of arranging flowers aesthetically, showing the relationship of man to the earth and sky.
 - Continental or European is the classic “round ball” or “Mass Arrangement”
- Shallow dish/Oriental bowl containers became popular.